Prayer for Graduates Bless these graduates, Lord, as we now thank you for the gift of education.

Through the teachers, talents and perseverance You have sent, these young adults have gained knowledge to face the future with great hope.

We pray that they will use this gift of education to Your greater honor and glory, never forgetting responsibility to those less learned.

And we also pray that they will continue to be lifelong learners.

As these graduates move on to the future, help them, Lord

To seek not grades, but understanding

To seek not popularity, but true friends,

To seek not promotion, but fulfillment

To seek not success, but service

To seek not pleasure, but joy

To seek not affluence but peace

To seek not compromise but truth

To seek not attention but respect

To seek not themselves but others

To seek not heaven but You

We ask this in your name Lord, Jesus. Amen !
